

The youth ministry team seeks to promote unity and fellowship among the young people through regularly-scheduled activities, out-of-town trips, annual youth camps, and conferences specifically geared toward the youth.

Another youth ministry tangents include girls club (ages 11-17) which offers encouragement and planned activities, such as trips to amusement parks, shopping, ice cream shop or lunch and to the park or playground afterwards, craft-making, assistance with special school projects.